Dear Mr. Reynolds:

Thank you for your Request for Evaluation of the Manhattan Criminal Courts Building at 100 Centre Street. The agency has carefully reviewed the complex's architecture and history and has determined that the courthouse, which occupies the southern portion of the lot, may merit consideration as a potential New York City Landmark. We note that the City's plan is to construct a new borough-based jail on the site of the prison wing on the northern portion of the lot.

We thank you for your commitment to historic preservation and appreciate your interest in the work of the Landmarks Preservation Commission.

Sincerely,

Kate Lemos McHale
